Subject: Good Friday Holiday – March 21, 2008

The International Securities Exchange Options market will be closed for trading on Friday, March 21, 2008, in observance of Good Friday.

The following changes will apply to the trading schedule:

- The last day of trading for equity options and ETFs expiring in March 2008 will be Thursday, March 20, 2008. Settlement values for these contracts will be based on Thursday's closing prices.
- The last day of trading for European style index options expiring in March 2008 will be Wednesday, March 19, 2008. Settlement values will be calculated based on Thursday morning's opening prices of the underlying securities.
- The last day of trading for Foreign Currency Options expiring in March 2008 will be Thursday, March 20, 2008. The settlement values will be calculated based on Thursday's Noon Buying Rates.

The cut-off time for the submission of Expiring Exercise Declaration ("EED") notices of expiring March 2008 contracts is Thursday, March 20, 2008 at 5:30 P.M. ET (4:30 P.M. CT).

All expiration support normally provided on expiration Saturdays will be available on Friday. Please call ISE Market Operations with any expiration-related questions that day (877-473-9989).

Normal trading and business hours will resume on Monday, March 24, 2008.
