Information on the Notes

Merrill Lynch & Co., Inc. (the "Issuer") has issued Accelerated Return Notes ("Notes") linked to the PHLX Gold & Silver Index (the "Index"). The Notes were priced at $10 each and mature on January 6, 2009.

As more fully set forth in the prospectus supplement, each $10 principal amount of the Notes will be deemed a "Unit" for purposes of trading and transfer. There will be no payments or redemptions prior to the maturity date.

The Notes provide full exposure to any downside movement in the Index and triple exposure to any upside movement in the Index, subject to a maximum payment at maturity of $13.525 per Note.

At maturity, investors in the Notes will receive:

(1) If the Ending Value is less than or equal to the Starting Value:

$$10 \times (\text{Ending Value}/\text{Starting Value})$; or

(2) If the Ending Value is greater than the Starting Value:

$$10 + [$30 \times ((\text{Ending Value} - \text{Starting Value})/\text{Starting Value})]$

The Starting Value for the Index is 180.70. The Ending Value for the Index will be calculated shortly before the maturity date. Investors should review the prospectus for more details regarding the calculation.

Investors should note that the underlying securities are not involved in the subject offering and have no obligation with respect to the Notes whatsoever, including any obligations with respect to the principal amount to be paid at maturity, or to take the needs of the Issuer or holders of the Notes into consideration.

The Notes are not principal protected. In addition, there will be no payments on the Notes prior to the maturity date and the Issuer cannot redeem the Notes prior to the maturity date.

Since all payments which may be due to holders of Notes are the sole responsibility of the Issuer, it is the credit of Merrill Lynch & Co., Inc., which stands behind the securities.

It is expected that the market value of the Notes will depend substantially on the value of the Index and may be affected by a number of other interrelated factors including, among other things: the general level of interest rates, the volatility of the Index, the time remaining to maturity, the dividend yield of the stocks comprising the Index, and the credit ratings of the Issuer.

The Trustee for the securities is The Bank of New York.

Trading in the Notes on NASDAQ is on a UTP basis and is subject to NASDAQ equity trading rules. The Notes will trade from 7:00 a.m. until 8:00 p.m. Eastern Time.
